Germany Officially Finds
Her Food Sufficient

London, Jan. 13.—The Mail prints a five column article, crowded with statistics, devoted to showing that all kinds of foodstuffs from England are passing through Denmark for Germany. The writer of the article, who was sent by the Mail through the Scandinavian countries and Holland to make inquiry into the subject says that a similar condition of affairs prevails throughout Scandinavia and Holland, but he confines his figures to Denmark.

The Danish government now prohibits the publication of statistics except as regards the port of Copenhagen, but a study even of these restricted figures, asserts the writer, proves the case completely. He declares it is impossible for Denmark's small population to consume the enormous quantities of foodstuffs imported and says the vast bulk of her exports go to Germany, either directly or through Sweden.

The Mail in an editorial on this charge roundly denounces the "present feed-the-Germans" policy of the foreign office.

ROOSEVELT "FIRST AMERICAN"

Progressive National Committee So Salutes Colonel in Message from Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—The dispatch of telegrams to leading Progressives, who were unable to attend the committee meeting in this city Tuesday, and conferences on the general political situation virtually concluded the committee's business yesterday. In a message to Colonel Theodore Roosevelt the committee greets him as "the first American and foremost statesman of the world," commends his efforts in the cause of national preparedness, and concludes: "The time is at hand when it must no longer be said that any one can kill an American citizen with impunity and then haggle over the value of his life."

Replies also were sent to messages from Arthur N. Sager, Missouri; John M. Parker, New Orleans; Oscar Strauss, New York; Albert J. Beveridge, and Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California.

Don't Merely "Stop" a Cough

Stop the Thing that Causes It and the Cough will Stop Itself

A cough is really one of our best friends. It warns us that there is inflammation or obstruction in a dangerous place. Therefore, when you get a bad cough don't proceed to dose yourself with a lot of drugs that merely "stop" the cough temporarily by deadening the throat nerves. Treat the cause—heat the inflamed membranes. Here is a home-made remedy that gets right at the cause and will make an obstinate cough vanish more quickly than you ever thought possible.

Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint of the most pleasant and effective cough remedy you ever used, at a cost of only 54 cents. No bother to prepare. Full directions with Pinex.

It heals the inflamed membranes so gently and promptly that you wonder how it does it. Also loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, rich in guaiacol, and is famous the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

MOB LYNCHES NEGRO; WRONG ONE NEAR DEATH

Murderer of Wealthy North Carolina Farmer Killed at Scene of Crime.

Goldsboro, N. C., Jan. 13.—A mob overpowered the sheriff and his officers at the county jail here yesterday and, battering down the doors, entered and removed John Richards, a negro, confessed murderer of A. T. Gurley, a wealthy farmer.

The screams of the negro could be heard for many blocks. He was placed in an automobile and rushed to the Hooks bridge, over Little River, the scene of the murder, and hung from a rafter of the bridge, after which his body was filled with bullets.

In its hurry the mob at first removed the wrong negro, but one of the members soon discovered the mistake. An automobile left in the jail yard may be the means of apprehending the guilty parties.

PENSIONS EAT REVENUE

The Disbursements in Twenty States Exceed the Collections

A PROBLEM FOR PARTY IN POWER

Industrial States Are Near-est Normal in This Respect

Washington, Jan. 13.—Pension disbursements in practically 20 states of the union exceed both the total and individual internal revenue collections for these same states, according to figures available from official sources. Furthermore, the pension disbursements for the last fiscal year were nearly $50,000,000 greater than the revenue returns from the emergency act, from the corporation tax act, and from the individual income tax. The publication of these facts here is throwing a new light on the question of governmental income and expenditure, a subject which is engrossing the attention of the party in power.

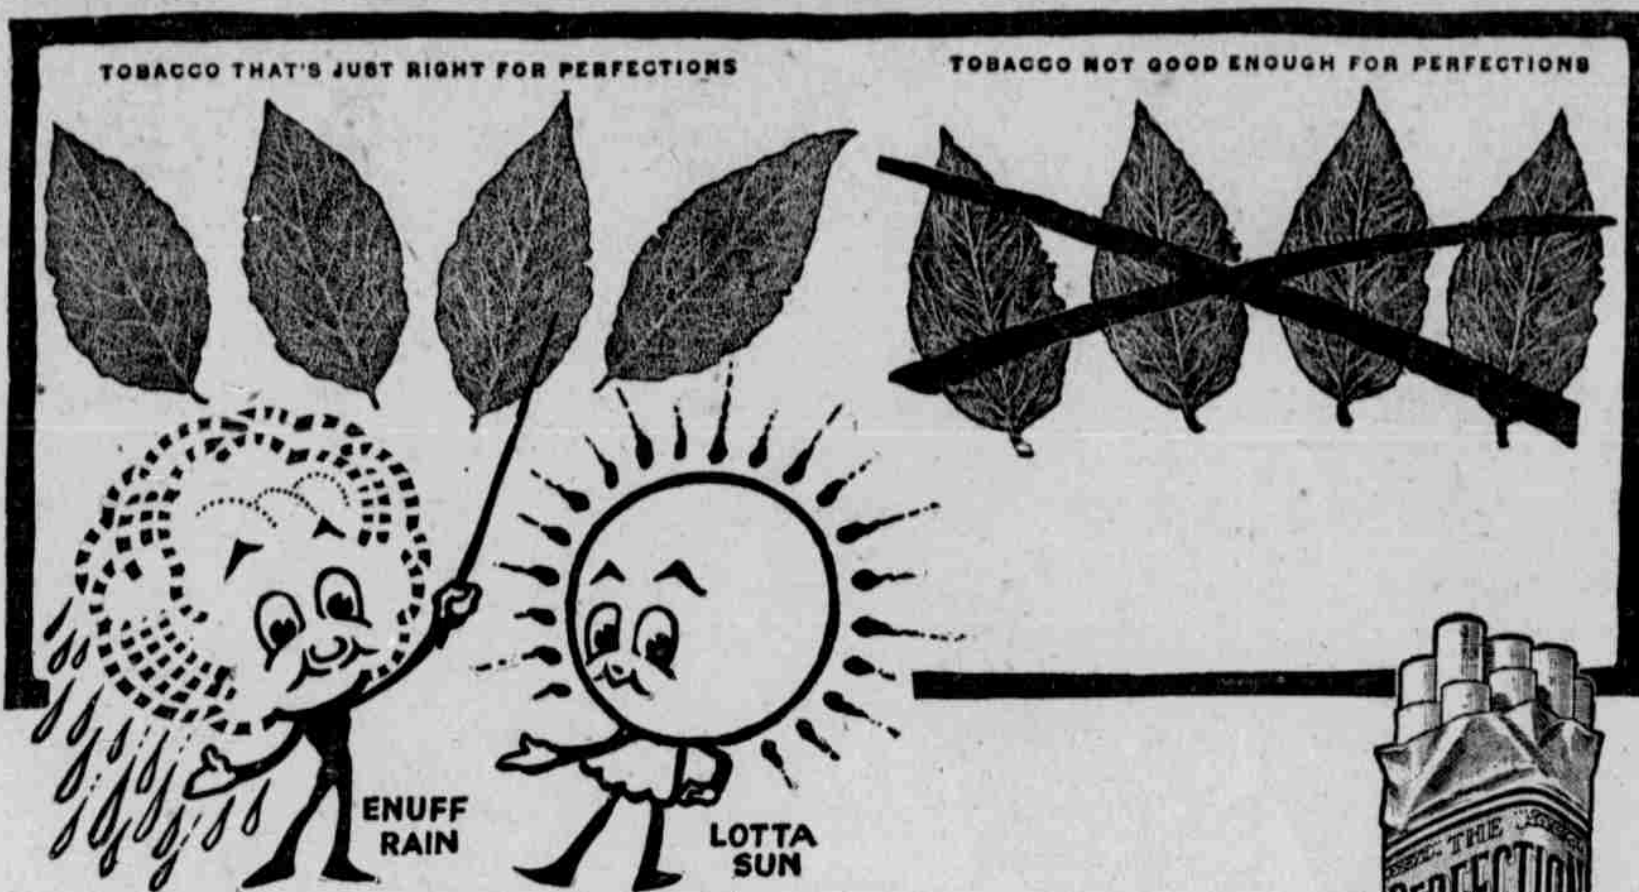

The total receipts from revenue sources during the last fiscal year were approximately $415,000,000, and the pension disbursements amounted to $164,500,000.

In Arkansas, Colorado, the District of Columbia, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee, West Virginia and Wyoming, the pension disbursements ran far ahead of the internal revenue receipts. In Arkansas, for example, $1,779,000 was paid out by government in pensions, and only $394,536 were taken in in revenue; in Idaho pensions were more than twice as great as revenue collections; in Iowa pensions were $5,621,416 as against $2,621,308 for revenues. The showing made by Kansas is even worse, for as against a revenue collection of $1,101,868 the pension disbursements rose to $6,545,577. In Kentucky the pension was nearly four times as large as revenues. In Maine revenue was $718,084 as against $2,881,484 for pensions. Even Mississippi, a southern state, showed a similar record, for the revenue collections were $224,000 as against $810,000 for pensions. New Hampshire collected nearly $800,000 in internal revenue and received $1,300,000 in pensions. Oklahoma's record was no better—$2,302,000 for pensions and $729,000 for revenue.

Apparently the industrial states where the population is the most dense present more normal conditions. The pension disbursements in Massachusetts, for example, were about half of the internal revenue collections; in Illinois, $11,000,000 were disbursed in pensions and $52,000,000 were collected from internal revenue sources. New York got $13,000,000 in pensions and paid into the treasury $70,000,000 in revenue. Pennsylvania paid in $37,000,000 in revenue, receiving a little over $15,000,000 in pensions. In all, there were 17 states to which internal revenue receipts heavily exceeded pension expenditures. Among these states, including those already mentioned, were Louisiana, Maryland, California, Georgia, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, North Carolina, Ohio and Wisconsin.

In many states in which revenue exceeded pensions, the difference was so small as to be almost negligible. In Alabama, for example, the excess of revenue over expenditures was about $8,000; in Arizona it was $18,000; in Delaware it was less than $200,000; in Rhode Island about $600,000; in South Carolina a little over $100,000.

As might be expected, the southern states, with one or two exceptions, show an excess of revenue over pension disbursements.

SHERIFF SLAIN MAKING ARREST.

Richard F. Lawton Victim of Edwin D. Carter at Westfield, Mass.

Westfield, Mass., Jan. 13.—Deputy Sheriff Richard F. Lawton was shot and fatally wounded yesterday afternoon by Edwin D. Carter, whom he was about to arrest at his home in Russell on a warrant charging threats to assault his wife, Belle Carter.

Carter fired two revolver shots at Lawton. One appears to have gone wild, but the other entered the head above the left temple and passed through the brain, lodging in the right side of the skull and fracturing it. At the Noble hospital here he died at 10 o'clock last night.

Lawton, with Special Officer William H. Noble, had gone from here by automobile to Russell, eight miles away. Carter lives in a little house, with a poolroom attached, on Main street, and Lawton, leaving Noble in the automobile, opened the front door and went in. After a couple of minutes he reappeared, motioned to Noble to come up and went back inside.

The door was left partly open and Noble says that, standing on the step, he heard Lawton telling Carter, with some emphasis, as if tired of repetition, that he had a warrant for his arrest and that Carter had better come right along with him to Westfield. Then came the two shots and the sound of Lawton's body falling. Noble had only accompanied Lawton for the ride, and was unarmed, as was Lawton. When, therefore, he heard Carter say, "Where's the other fellows?" he did not try to cope with him or to find out what had happened, but turned and ran, giving the alarm in the poolroom and making for the Russell hotel, a short distance away, to telephone here for assistance.

CAN'T FIND DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears after one or two applications of Danderine rubbed well into the scalp with the finger tips. Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store and save your hair. After a few applications you can't find a particle of dandruff or any falling hair, and the scalp will never itch.—Adv.

Mrs. Carter works at the hotel as a cook and Carter had previously made trouble there and was feared. So when Noble told of the shooting the hotel doors were locked and the hotel employees and guests anxiously waited to see if he would appear.

After Noble had gone Carter lifted up Lawton's body, carried it outdoors and threw it on a pile of snow. Then he started for the automobile, and the chauffeur, also unarmed, left the car and ran to shelter behind a tree. At that Carter, revolver in hand, started up the street toward the hotel. On the way he was met by Constable A. B. Copeland, to whom he turned over the revolver and by whom he suffered himself without resistance to be put under arrest and handcuffed.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

There is a Real Risk in Waiting Too Long Before You Order Your Ford

Each year we have urged the public to guard against possible disappointments. Each year, in spite of this warning, many have had to pay more for another car because they could not get a Ford. In spite of double the production, we find ourselves thirty-six cars short of our allotment up to the present time. The present indications are that we will have hard work to fill orders after the first of May.

Year after year, there is a steadily growing demand for the Ford car; a very large number of owners automatically renew their orders for a Ford car. Year by year, the Ford becomes more of a business asset: the touring car for pleasure, the runabout for physicians and professional men, the delivery car for the merchant. There is more than double the production of Ford cars against that of any other car on the market to-day. The Ford owes this prestige not only to its economic production but to the completeness of the Ford Service all over the world.

There is no car produced that can be run so cheaply and there is no place so remote that you are not protected by the network of the splendid Ford Service which covers the entire country. Therefore, if you can place your order for a Ford now, we urge you to do so and guard against disappointment. We are doing our best to protect you but we will have to disappoint many before the season closes.

Prices f. o. b. Detroit: Touring car, $440.00; Runabout, $390.00; Delivery car, $475.00 to $525.00.
